

Greetings and congratulations on your excellent purchase of UPSIDE DOWN CROSSROADS OF AMERIKKKA, the latest musical offering by anarcho sludged-crossover luminaries MARINE CORPSE. Included in this release you should find one (1) standard match and one (1) USB memory stick containing four (4) original tunes in both WAV and MP3 formats. If your product is incomplete, damaged, or appears to have been tampered with, please do not hesitate to travel directly to the nearest ocean coastline by whatever means are at your disposal and gaze upon the perpetual motion of the waves, forever crashing in eternal rhythmic cadence, slowly pulverizing the improbable constructs of 4.6 billion years of geologic upheaval into grains of sand so impossibly fine and supernumerary that any attempt at their calculation would seem hysterically meaningless. Or you can e-mail marinecorpse666@gmail.com and we'll send you another one.

A note on the recordings (i.e. where the fuck are the guitars??): Marine Corpse has been around since 2005 and flatly refuses to die. But as Matt and Nick continued to progress as musicians (and Alex got louder), we eventually hit a point where composing for guitar alone was getting boring. So to shake things up, Nick moved to bass full time and Matt wrote out some wild-ass leads on a keyboard. We basically trashed our entire back catalogue and wrote all new material, played maybe one show with that setup, and got recordings in the can. While this was a fun detour, we ended up deciding that it just wasn't the same without palm muting, so we enlisted our buddy Steve to bring back that Classic Grime™ for the live set. Rather than re-recording everything with guitar, we decided to put the weird synthy stuff out there because it's fun and different...just like you! Enjoy!

With love,
Matt, Steve, Nick, and Alex

Lyrics

1. NSMKYS

Alt-right fuckboys can't be saved
Pale white bodies, shallow graves
Throw their corpses in the trash
The youth today is anti-fash

Can't escape the guillotine

Burn the prisons down
Put fascists in the ground

Old South throwbacks taste the blade
All class traitors are repaid
Police cowards try to flee

WE WILL CRUSH YOU IN THE STREETS
WE WILL FIGHT YOUR GOD

Like all of our songs, this one is pretty ridiculous, but the dedication to Won-Joon Yoon is extremely serious. Miss us with that free speech for fascists shit, we know exactly where it leads.

2. Human Compost

Sold short
Dead last
No chance
We're past

Black snake suppurating disease
Sixth extinction, anthropocene
Primate biomass retrieved
Repurposed to heal the seas

I knew it was coming but it's here today
The ocean's coming in Society decays

Mass migrations, life displaced
Biotic crisis escalates
Boundless crownfires will not yield
Tropospheric coffin sealed

Ground under by endless seismic waves
Geologic process fills our grave
Desertification won't abate
Cenozoic era terminates

Geocortex comes awake
Limnic cloud chokes all mistakes
Gaia concludes ape-made strife
Rich loam for endless flux of LIFE

3. Downward Mobility

Anti-racist, working class
Right wing scum, we'll stomp your ass

Anti-racist, working class
Right wing scum, we'll stomp your ass

Just got outta work for a low payoff
You're dirty and you're tired and you're fuckin pissed off
Hit up BRL on the way to the show Lace your boots, grab your vest -- it's how we fuckin roll

Class war wage slave, underemployed
But your money don't mean shit when you gaze
in The Void
Demonic influence pulls us down in the pit
When the cops show up, nobody sez shit

Marine Corpse in the mix with the '99 style Bringin back the riffs to make the basement get wild
Brass knuckle beats what we bring to the fight Droppin fuckin knowledge that'll keep you up at night

MC in the mix got the fuse box burnt
Midwest hardcorn keep the whole crowd turnt
Respect is the code when we run the room
Randall stax on the stage make the party go
BOOM

Anti-racist, working class!

4. Slaughtertrap

Corridors of ichor
Stink of putrid flesh
Ammonia makes us sicker
Scald our every breath

LIFE
Is this LIFE?

A perfect realm of torture
Within a crowded cell
No light, no movement
A living hell

Rows of haunted faces
Search for any clue
Why have I been brought here?
What do you intend to do?

Smell of terror all around
Panic fills the air
Limits of my mind are stretched
I'm overwhelmed by fear
My life designed from birth to death
and circumscribed in steel

Refuse to see my suffering
Yet deny I still feel

We choose
They die
Ignore
Their cries

Shut out
From sight
All mercy
Denied
